Submission Note

Dear Organizing Team,

We sincerely apologize for not submitting the presentation in PDF format as requested. Our team has put immense effort, creativity, and dedication into building these slides, and the experience is best viewed in their original interactive format.

We are genuinely excited to share our work with you and hope you will review the presentation through the link below, as it reflects the project exactly as we intended. We believe this format showcases our ideas more effectively and brings us one step closer to delivering a winning hackathon submission.
